GRAND JURY INDICTS REV. FRANK NORRIS

Fort Worth, Tex., Dec. 11.—The Grand Jury of the Seventeenth District court returned two indictments at 5 o'clock this afternoon against Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist church, charging him with arson in connection with the burning of the First Baptist church and parsonage last year. The warrants for the arrest of defendant had not been served at 7 o'clock tonight and Deputy Sheriff Fitch, who was at the office stated that he had received instructions from Sheriff Rea not to make the arrest until morning.

The action of the grand jury followed the habeas corpus proceedings had in the Sixty-seventh District court this afternoon, which resulted in the release of Dr. Norris on his own recognizance.

As the result of the habeas corpus proceedings instituted last night in the Sixty-Seventh District Court, Rev. Mr. Norris, who was charged by complaint with arson in two cases, was released on his own recognizance, to await such action as the grand jury might take.

Justice of the Peace T. J. Mahen had bound Dr. Norris over in the sum of $2,000, after a prolonged examining trial on the charges of burning the First Baptist church and parsonage last year. District Judge Marvin H. Brown granted a writ of habeas corpus last evening and released Dr. Norris on his own recognizance to appear at the hearing today.

To Raise Big Fund for Sunday Schools
Chicago, Ill., Dec. 12.—Armed with enthusiasm and equipped with subscription books, several hundred teams of ten men each today started out on a seven-day campaign to raise $100,000 with which to finance the work and convention of the International Sunday School Association the coming year. The convention of the organization will be held in this city next June

NEWS TAKES TELEGRAPH

BEGINNING WITH JANUARY 5 WILL RECEIVE UNITED PRESS
NEWS REPORTS.

By way of an experiment the News has made arrangements for telegraph service beginning January 5. Of course this means a considerable additional expense and if it is made a permanent feature of the News it follows that the public must give it an increased volume of business. The News is not asking for any business on the ground of charity or as a donation, but if its patrons want this service permanently it is up to them to turn more of their business to this office. No increase will be made in subscription, advertising or commercial printing rates, all the management asking for being a larger volume at the present figures.

The News is the only paper in Oklahoma the size of Ada giving its readers the benefit of telegraph service. However, it has always been its policy to give its patrons the best service possible and keep the paper right up to the highest standard. The new service, which will be from the United Press, which is the leading news gathering bureau for afternoon papers will keep the readers of the News informed of the events of the day and put them a day ahead of the metropolitan dailies circulated here.

As stated above, the service will be only an experiment extending over a period of three months. If at the end of that time the volume of business has increased sufficiently to justify its continuance, it will be made a permanent feature of the Evening News.

CHICAGO POLICE BARRED FIRST AUTO FROM STREETS

Elwood Haynes, pioneer automobile manufacturer of Kokomo, Ind., contributes the sixth of a series of articles on his Life and Inventions in the Christmas issue of The Haynes Pioneer, monthly house organ of the company of which he is president.

This article is reminiscent of the days when he operated the 'horseless carriage.' It relates how Elwood Haynes was ordered off Michigan Boulevard, Chicago, in 1895 and furnishes another striking example of the wonderful growth of the automobile industry in this country.

"At that time," writes Mr. Haynes, "there was some question in the mind of the public as to the right of the 'horseless carriage' on the highway. Lawyers were consulted regarding the matter, and after looking up the law they discovered that the question had been broadly covered, not only by the lower court, but by the supreme court as well, and that the decisions were of sufficient scope as to unquestionably include the automobile and give it a full and unrestricted right on the highway.

"I remember very well when the little machine was unloaded for the 'Times-Herald' Contest in 1895 at Englewood, a suburb of Chicago. I was riding down Michigan avenue, intending to drive to the central portion of the city, and had scarcely proceeded more than six or eight blocks when I was accosted by a policeman who ordered me to leave the boulevard at once, as nothing like horseless-driven carriages were permitted on that thoroughfare. I remonstrated with him, since it was equipped with rubber tires and made but little noise. He simply replied that it was 'Arders, sir,' so I could do nothing but obey. Contrast that state of affairs with the constant stream of automobile traffic over Michigan avenue today and you will be able to realize what vast changes have taken place since then, not only in the mode of locomotion but in public sentiment as well."

Frisco Safe at Wetumka Blown.
Wetumka, Okla., Dec. 12.—Yeggs who dynamited the safe in the ticket office of the Frisco railroad office here early Thursday morning, securing $38.87, after a running fight with officers in which a dozen shots were exchanged, escaped on horseback. It is believed they were headed for the Canadian river bottoms. A posse is in pursuit. The safe was demolished. It is believed there are only two yeggs in the party.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS

CONSIDERS BRIDGE MATTER AND CLEAN TOWN CONTEST—
STEPS FOR CO. FAIR.

The Commercial Club held a meeting Thursday evening, but the attendance was not all it should have been.

The first matter under consideration was the question of replacing bridge across Sandy on the Bebee and Maxwell road. It was pointed out that this is one of the most important roads into Ada and that if the bridge is not speedily replaced it will mean a serious loss of trade to Ada. It was stated that the bridge lodged about a mile below the point where it originally stood and could be torn up and replaced at no great expense. On motion a committee composed of R. W. Simpson, J. D. Rinard and M. R. Chilcutt was appointed to confer with the county commissioners at their meeting Monday in regard to the matter.

President Wilson brought up the matter of the clean town contest and ing another effort before the next fall the club was heartily in favor of making an inspection is made to determine the winner from among the four towns tied on the first inspection. It was moved that a committee be appointed to confer with the Civic and Cemetery association in regard to the matter. The chair appointed E. F. Messenger, M. Levin and E. S. Ratliff. The directors reported that at their last meeting they had employed E. F. Messenger as secretary of the club. The directors had also agreed to pay $250 on the salary of a county farm demonstrator's salary and $150 on the salary of a lady to direct the canning clubs of the county, it being understood that after July 1 the county commissioners would make an appropriation to take care of these items. Although this demonstration work is for the entire county, and has been a heavy load for the commercial club, its importance is realized to an extent that made the club willing to carry it on a few months longer.

The directors also have under consideration the question of a county fair and steps will be taken in the near future looking toward that much desired end. This time an early start will be made and there is little doubt about it being a success.

Central Debating League Contests.
Chicago, Ill., Dec. 12.—The Central Debating League, composed of the State universities of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, Illinois and Iowa, holds its annual contests tonight. The arrangements provide for each institution to be represented by two teams one debating at home and the other abroad. The subject selected for the debates is: "Resolved, That immigration into this country should be further restricted by means of a literary test."

New Postoffice Bills.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Three administration postoffice bills were passed late Wednesday by the house. One would eliminate the distinctive stamp now used on official postal savings correspondence, another would make money orders payable at any money order postoffice instead of at a specified office as at present and the third would authorize the postmaster-general to reimburse postmasters for losses sustained through no fault of their own as by robbery.

Those Letters to Santa Claus

Do you remember how careful we used to be when we wrote to Santa. How we begged the special privilege of using ink, and the best paper our mothers would give us?

We wanted to let Santa know what nice boys and girls we were—we wanted to make an impression.

There are grown-up people now who feel just as anxious to do themselves justice with their letters. They have special letters for which they want specially fine stationery. The paper for them is—because no paper could be more correctly designed or more expressive of the last word in refinement.

For Holiday greetings or thank-you notes at Christmas time this paper is particularly appropriate. Its shapes and sizes are just as correct as the fine linen finish of the surface itself.

MORE TRAIN SERVICE OVER THE FRISCO

Denison, Tex., Dec. 12.—Effective at once, the Frisco railroad will operate their fast freight and other trains of freight service through Denison instead of Paris, as has been the custom. The Frisco has been running freight trains from St. Louis to Monett, then to Paris over their line and from Paris to Dallas over the Santa Fe.

Following a meeting of officials of the Frisco held in Paris yesterday the announcement was received by local officials of the Frisco this morning that the freight service from now on that has been operated through Paris would be run through Denison.

No announcement was made regarding the passenger service that is operated through Paris to Dallas. However, it is believed by local railroad men that a new time card will be issued and passenger trains operated through from St. Louis to Dallas via Paris will be run through Denison. To change the passenger schedule a new time card will be issued and it is generally believed that this card will be forthcoming about January 1. With the new passenger trains Denison will get the service recently asked for by members of the Denison Chamber of Commerce, who visited Frisco officials in St. Louis and asked for a motor car service or steam train from Oklahoma points to reach Denison during the morning hours and returning north in the afternoon. It is believed that the Frisco will have on the new card to be issued a passenger train arriving in Denison about 10 o'clock each morning, returning north about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. No official announcement has been made as to the passenger schedule, yet it is almost certain that it will be put on.

The Red river division of the Frisco will be worked over entirely from Denison to Francis and special attention will be given to the spaded and bridges, in order that no trouble will occur from the rack caused by the increased tonnage to be handled.

Wilson to Return Xmas Gifts.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 12.—President Wilson, it is understood, intends to follow the example of the most of his predecessors in declining to accept Christmas presents from strangers. Every year hundreds of gifts are received at the White House from persons unknown to the president or his family. Those of any considerable value are to be returned to the sender, with a note explaining the president's attitude in regard to receiving gifts. The presents of small value including large quantities of eatable are usually turned over to the hospitals, orphan's homes and similar institutions in the capital.

TO MAKE YOUR HAIR MORE BEAUTIFUL

To give your hair that gloss and lustre and wavy silky-softness, use Harmony Hair Beautifier. It takes away the dull dead look of the hair, and makes it bright—turns the stringiness into fluffiness—overcomes the oily odors and leaves a sweet, true-rose fragrance—makes the hair easier to put up neatly and easier to keep in place. It is just exactly what it is named—a hair beautifier, and whether your hair is ugly now or beautiful, it will improve its appearance. You'll be proud of and delighted with the results, or your money back. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change the color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure, liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, because it gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50¢. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Main St., Ada, Okla.

YOUNG MAN DIES AT FITZHUGH

Early this morning Bert Musgrove, aged 17, died at Fitzhugh of typhoid fever and a hemorrhage. The young man was of robust build and had always been very strong, but a week's illness cut him down in his prime. To his many friends his unexpected death came as a great shock. Deceased was a nephew of J. A. Phillips of Fitzhugh. The funeral and interment will probably be held Saturday at Roff.

NEGROES PREPARING FOR RETURN TO AFRICA

Fort Smith, Ark., Dec. 12.—Fifteen hundred negroes residing along the Fort Smith and Western railway between this city and Guthrie have completed arrangements to sail for Africa the first of the year and all efforts to induce them to remain in this country are fruitless. The railway has commenced an investigation as the methods employed in securing their consent to be taken to Africa owing to the fact that they have been told the initial payment of $25 is all that is required. The offer has created the greatest excitement among the negroes and they are resorting to unusual methods to secure the necessary funds to pay for their passage.

For weeks a negro representing himself as "King Sam" has been at work among the negroes with agents explaining his plan to remove them to Africa. "King Sam" alleges his sole mission in the United States is to remove his "fellow countrymen" to the land of plenty and sunshine. Some doubt has been raised as to the genu-

101 RANCH USES OK CEMENT

The Oklahoma Portland Cement Co. has a large photo of the 101 ranch, which is of unusual interest, in view of the fact that a great quantity of OK cement was used there. Some of the larger houses, walks curbing and three silos are built of the Ada material and the owners are preparing to build eight more silos as soon as possible. The ranch is something beautiful to look upon and the cement adds no little to the ultimate result.

Mistakes in Names.

The man who asked the bookseller for Professor Drummond's "Nux Vomica" when his mistress had sent him for "Pax Vobiscum," must have been a sort of mental cousin to the errand boy who asked over the publishing house counter for "The Little Monster," by the author of "The Widow's Thumbs." The man behind the counter knew his Barrie sufficiently well to give him "The Little Minister." It was probably either a suffragette or a house of commons policeman who inquired for "She Swoops to Conquer," when Goldsmith's masterpiece under a somewhat similar title was required, and it is, at least, as probable that the man who asked for "The History of the Uninhabited Islands of the Pacific, by One of the Natives," is returning from a missionary meeting.

A country clergyman of an evangelical turn of mind wrote to a London publisher requesting him to forward a copy of a recent publication entitled "New and Contrite Hearts." After the lapse of a week the publisher's clerk replied "we regret to be unable to supply 'New and Contrite Hearts,' as we are out of stock ourselves and there is none to be obtained in the city."

The small boys who go from one publishing house to another picking up orders for some bookseller or armed with canvas bag into they thrust their gleanings, are responsible for many breaks. One of them puzzled completely the expert behind the counter when he asked for "Many Sins of Judge Hawkins." Light only dawned when he tumbled to the fact that for "Many Sins" the word "Reminiscences" should be substituted. But even this does not take the prize, for another youthful genius asked for "The Social Evolution of Kiddies!" Still another asked for "Hetty Homer," evidently thinking he was in quest of a novel. He had to be sent back for instructions, and returned with a note asking for "Ecce Homo."—Philadelphia Ledger.

HARRIS CASE ALMOST OVER

By the time this paper reaches its readers, it is probable that the Harris case will be in the hands of the jury. The argument was opened Thursday evening for the prosecution by A. M. Croxton, deputy county attorney. He was followed by Judge Fenwick of Tishomingo for the defense. He concluded his argument this morning about 10 o'clock and was followed by Leslie Maxey, who addressed the jury four hours. T. P. Holt closed for the defense and J. W. Bolen is making the final argument for the state.

Cotton Insect Pests.

The cotton crop of 1912 was seriously affected by insect pests. The growers in a large section of the cotton belt had to contend with the boll weevil, while in some sections the crop suffered damage from cotton caterpillars, grass worms, and other pests to a greater extent than in former years. Drought in 1909 and 1910, particularly in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, checked the development of the boll weevils in their early stages, and killing frost followed by warm weather in the latter year greatly reduced their numbers. These conditions resulted in a great reduction in the number of weevils in 1911. The season of 1912, however, was again favorable to the weevil, and there was a considerable extension of the area subject to this pest. Owing to the general dissemination of the information obtained by the federal and state departments of agriculture the destructiveness of the boll weevil is being greatly reduced.

The quantity of cotton ginned from the crop of 1912 prior to September 1 was 730,935 bales, the largest amount for any year since the inauguration of these reports by the Census Bureau, with the single exception of 1911 when the number of bales was 771,297. By Oct. 18, 1912, 51 per cent of the crop had been ginned, as compared with 49.9 per cent in 1911, 46.9 per cent in 1910, 54.9 per cent in 1909, 48.1 percent in 1908, and 40 per cent in 1907. By November 14 slightly more than three-fourths of the crop had been ginned. There was considerable difference, however, among the several states in the proportion of the total amount ginned to specified dates. More than two-thirds of the total crop of Texas had been ginned by October 18, while Tennessee showed less than one-third.

Some idea of the importance of cotton production in the United States from an economic standpoint may be had when it is considered that next to corn, cotton is the most valuable crop grown in the country, and that cotton in its unmanufactured condition is the largest single item of export. The value of the cotton crop of 1909 represented 15 per cent of the total value of all the crops of the country. The value of cotton exported during the fiscal year 1912 amounted to $565,849,271 or 26.1 per cent of the total value of all articles of domestic merchandise exported during the year. It exceeded the amounts for iron and steel manufactures, meat and dairy products, and breadstuffs combined, these three groups ranking next in importance among articles exported. These large exports, combined with the more than five million bales consumed in domestic manufacture, strikingly indicate the importance of cotton in the economic affairs of the nation.

Altogether the greatest cotton-growing section in the world, both in extent and in production, is located in the south-central and southeastern parts of the United States. It includes small portions of Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas and New Mexico, and the states lying to the south. This cotton-producing area is about 1,500 miles long, from east to west, and about 500 miles wide. Within the past few years the cultivation of cotton has been undertaken in Arizona and California on irrigated land with considerable success, especially in the latter state. The growing of more valuable crops, however, will likely prevent any appreciable increase in the production in these states.

Numerous efforts have been made in recent years to introduce the cultivation of cotton in new countries and to increase the production in others. In some instances failure has attended these efforts, and in only a few cases

It would appear from the information at hand that the greatest increase in the growing of cotton in foreign countries may be expected in Asiatic Russia, India and Egypt in which last named country irrigation works of magnitude have been projected, some of them being under construction.

One-Sixth of Our Population Go to Moving-Picture Shows.

In the August American Magazine, in the department called "The Interpreter's House, appears an interesting account of a thorough investigation of the moving-picture business recently made in Cleveland, Ohio. The following extract presents some important facts showing the general trend of the business:

"There are in Cleveland one hundred and thirty-one movies, with a seating capacity of 62,442. The statistics of attendance are interesting. During the one-round tour of the investigation 8,245 children were counted, and over half of them, or 4,290, were unaccompanied. About 115,000 people—men, women and children—daily attend the motion pictures—one-sixth of the population of Cleveland. This is for weeks days, and counts all performances, afternoon and evening. There is no way of estimating the 'repeaters.' On Sundays and holidays about 200,000, or one-third the total population, attend. A residence canvass of ten families in fifteen different neighborhoods showed that on an average over half of all the families visited picture shows more than once a week. And when you think that Cleveland figures are probably pretty representative for the whole United

COTTON ESTIMATE

GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES CROP FOR 1912 AT 13,677,000 BALES. LESS THAN 1912.

The final estimate of the season's cotton crop was given to the public at 1 o'clock. The government officials estimate the total crop at 13,677,000 bales. At the same date in 1912 the estimate was 13,820,000 and the total yield was 14,089,000.

Evidently the estimate given out today was about what was expected for it made no appreciable impression on the market.

OLD PEOPLE GAIN

STRENGTH BY TAKING VINOL. HERE IS PROOF.

So many cases like this are constantly coming to our attention that we publish it for the benefit of others:—Mr. John Widmayer of Jackson, Mich., says: "I am nearly 70 years of age, and was in a feeble condition but Vinol has done wonders for me. It is the best medicine to create strength I have ever seen and I have taken a good many of them. Last spring I was run down and worn out but I took Vinol and soon regained my strength. Vinol is certainly an invigorating tonic for old people."

It is the medicinal curative elements of the cod livers without oil aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which are contained in Vinol that makes it so efficient in such cases

If you have an aged father, mother or anyone in your family who needs a strength-creating tonic, try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to benefit.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.

P. S. For itching, burning skin try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.
